Explanation

The bill, which (1) requires executive branch agencies that incarcerate or detain offenders to comply with federal Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) standards, (2) requires the Department of Correction to adopt regulations to implement PREA standards and submit a report to the general assembly, and (3) expands the existing responsibilities of the Office of the Correction Ombuds to include receiving and reviewing sexual assault reports and complaints, results in no fiscal impact to the state as the affected agencies have the capacity and resources to meet the requirements of the bill.
