SB-466

AN ACT CONCERNING VEXATIOUS REQUESTERS UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT.

OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

The bill expands public agencies' ability to seek relief from the Freedom of Information Commission (FOIC) against a vexatious requester and increases to three years the maximum period during which agencies may deny FOIA requests from a vexatious requester, if permitted by FOIC. The bill results in no fiscal impact to the state or municipalities, as it is not expected to result in savings associated with FOIA request workload.

The Out Years

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None
